

I am requesting that the you the FCC reject NAB's perition 04-160. I see no reason why a service that is paid for by a consumer should be limited. This country has bigger problems right now and I trying to limited a paid service is an large waste of time and money.